Privacy Notice for prospective employees of Bohamet S.A. headquartered in Ciele

This Privacy Notice regards persons who are interested in undertaking employment at Bohamet S.A., who intend to submit or have already submitted their application documents, such as CVs or cover letters, or who are already undergoing the recruitment process, e.g. have been invited to a job interview.

Pursuant to the Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 27 April 2016 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data, and repealing Directive 95/46/EC (General Data Protection Regulation, OJ UE L 119, 4.5.2016) – hereinafter referred to as: “GDPR”, we inform that:

1. The controller of your personal data is Bohamet Spółka Akcyjna headquartered in Ciele, ul. Toruńska 2 86-005 Ciele, Białe Błota, registered in the National Court Register maintained by the District Court in Bydgoszcz, Commercial Division No. 13 of the National Court Register no 0000471258, business ID no (NIP): 5540384828, share capital of PLN 36,000,000, paid in full.
2. You can contact the controller by post at the above address, by phone at +48 52 3203900, or by e-mail at sekretariat@bohamet.pl
3. Your personal data is processed on the legal basis of:
 - a. where the data processing regards personal data described in the provisions of the Polish Labour Code, the legal basis for its processing is Article 6(1)(b) of GDPR which states that personal data processing is permitted, inter alia, in cases where such processing is necessary in order to undertake action requested by the data subject before concluding an agreement. We call attention to the contents of Article 22¹ Sections 1 and 2 of the 26.06.1974 labour code act, which reads: “the employer requires from the prospective employee the following personal data: 1) first and second names and last name; 2) date of birth; 3) contact details provided by the person; 4) education information; 5) professional qualifications information; 6) employment history”, with the reservation that providing the data described in points 4)-6) is mandatory only whenever it is necessary to undertake work of given type or in a given position. This is the specific data being processed on the basis of the abovementioned GDPR provision,
 - b. where the data being processed is different from the data described above and is enclosed in the CV or other recruitment documents (such as a personal portrayal, interests, etc.), the legal basis for processing such data is your consent, pursuant to Article 6(1)(a) of GDPR which states that data processing is permitted in cases where the data subject has given consent for processing of their personal data for one or more specific purposes. Importantly, provision of such data (i.e. data other than that described in the labour code) is voluntary and contingent on your decision.
4. Independently of the above, should you express consent for the processing of your personal data not only for the purposes of the current recruitment processes, but also for the purposes of the future recruitment processes at Bohamet, such consent being entirely voluntary and dependent of your will, this processing of personal data shall rely on the legal basis of Article 6(1)(a) of GDPR which states that which states that data processing is permitted in cases where the data subject has given consent for processing of their personal data for one or more specific purposes.
5. Your personal data shall be stored for the period of the recruitment process in which you are participating. Where consent has been given for data processing for the purposes of future recruitment processes, we will be processing the data for 12 months from the moment of submission of the recruitment documents, after which period we will erase the data.
6. The recipients of your personal data may be:
 - a. entities operating the websites where Bohamet S.A. posts job advertisements, such as pracuj.pl, praca.pl, or olx.pl,
 - b. entities providing IT support services to Bohamet S.A.

5. Where personal data is being processed for the purpose of entering into a contract or establishing trade relations, we shall process your data for the period of negotiations and talks regarding the contract at hand. Should the contract fail to be concluded and trade relations fail to be established, we shall erase your data immediately after the relevant talks are terminated. Should the contract be concluded, we shall process your data for the term of the contract and after it expires – until the expiry of the limitation period regarding claims arising from that contract, including tax claims. Detailed information regarding the processing of personal data of a counterparty after entering into a contract can be found in the Privacy Notice for counterparts.
6. The recipients of your personal data may be:
 - a. entities providing IT support service to the Controller,
 - b. legal and advisory service providers (in particular law firms, tax advisors),
 - c. entities providing postal and courier services.
7. You have the right to access your personal data, the right to request rectification or erasure of your data, and the right to restrict its processing. Where your data is being processed out of necessity for the purpose of entering into a contract, you have the right to request transfer of your personal data. Where your data is being processed out of necessity for the purpose of pursuing legitimate interests of the data controller, you have the right to object to it being processed.

8. Should you conclude that the processing of your personal data violates the provisions of GDPR, you have the right to lodge a complaint with a supervisory entity - the President of The Office for Protection of Personal Data.
9. Your personal data is not shared with a third country or an international organisation.
10. In the processing of your data the controller does not utilise automated decision-making (e.g. artificial intelligence) or profiling in the meaning of GDPR.
